TPIE 2010

Bill Moore & Co., Inc. had another great show at the Tropical Plant Industry Exhibition in Ft. Lauderdale, FL. This year proved to be a busy one, but also rewarding. It is always a plus when we can meet and spend time with customers that we typically don't get a chance to see. Please enjoy some pictures that were taken during our time at the show.

Gulf States Horticultural Expo 2010 by Jillian Mann

The show was held in Mobile, AL on January 22nd and 23rd. This was the first time I had been to this trade show and it was a great experience. There were woody ornamentals galore at the Gulf State Horticultural Expo!

It was a great chance to meet some suppliers and customers that I haven't had a chance to meet before. Traffic did seem to be busy in the convention center. I hope everyone there had a great show.

Please enjoy some pictures I took while at the trade show.
