Trip to South Florida by Bill Moore

On September 14, 2008 Judy and I attended the 40th birthday party of nurseryman and friend Eddie “Chino” Ching, owner and operator of E. C. Plants, LLC in Homestead, FL. Eddie is married to a former employee of ours, Doris Garcia . The party was a huge success with great food, drink and entertainment for friends and family.

Later, the following week, we visited Eddie’s nursery noted for great quality plants in a setting which includes a picturesque log cabin housing the office of E. C. Plants. Eddie’s inventory of plants is concentrated on plants for the landscape, including palms and flowering tropicals such as Bougainvillea.
