No automated phones here!

It's something that consumers are really getting fed up with, those automated phone systems where you have to scream at the phone to get a real person. You do not have to worry about that when you call us! A real, live person will answer your call! No need to hit '1' for service or '2' for billing, we will answer your call right away and get you to the right person with whom you need to speak. It's a small convenience, but it is something we pride ourselves on. We are a small business, focused on making your business successful.
