LaDiva Berry Beautiful

LaDiva Berry Beautiful, a Spanish lavender, has its superpower in its unique, un-lavender-like dark pink color that contrasts perfectly with its tall gray-green foliage. The blooms are bold and big, floating effortlessly on sturdy stems. The compact yet upright habit adds to its appeal as a container plant or border plant. LaDiva Berry Beautiful is also a pollinator-friendly plant! Add this variety to your cool-crop rotation for early sales.

Lavandula angustifolia
LaDiva Eternal Elegance | 78215

LaDiva Eternal Elegance is a game-changer in angustifolia types. This English lavender has an absolute profusion of blooms from very early spring, continuing nonstop throughout the summer months. In production, LaDiva Eternal Elegance is a standout for its first year flowering without the need for vernalization as typical English types require. This variety is our most compact angustifolia, packing on an endless number of blooms for smaller container sizes.

Sedum hakonense
Chocolate Ball

This unique cold-hardy succulent forms a low-spreading mound of chocolate, needle-like foliage that changes to vivid red with cooler temperatures in fall. Yellow flowers appear in summer and continue into early fall, adding to the gorgeous year-round presentation. Perfect as a low-maintenance groundcover, but also well-suited for growing in containers and alpine gardens.
